

Capital Sisters International

Micro Loans for Women in Poverty

Awards and Recognition

Patricia Foley Hinnen, Founding CEO of Capital Sisters International, has received a number of important acknowledgments for her work in the areas of micro lending, impact investing, and financial inclusion, including:

- Official Delegate to the United Nations Conference on the Status of Women (2018 and 2019)
- Inaugural List “Who’s Who in Impact Investing,” Denver Business Journal (2017)
- The Global Purpose Prize for Financial Inclusion from MetLife Foundation/AARP/Encore - for work in micro finance and economic justice for women around the world (2016)
- Outstanding Female Entrepreneur from World Denver - for work in microfinance (2016)
- One of “15 Inspiring Female CEOs to Impact the World” - from Cause Artists (2015)
- Leader, Impact Investing Marketplace - Impact Finance Center
- Encore Fellowship - for innovative work in gender and microfinance
- Recognition from Friendship Bridge, a Microfinance Institution operating in Guatemala - for dedicated service
- Global Service Award - Alliance of Professional Women
- Acknowledgment from the Ambassador for Global Women’s Issues at the State Department - for a decade of service to the Asia Pacific Economic (APEC) forum (2011)
- Semi-finalist Echoing Green Innovation Fellowship - for Social Entrepreneurs (2010)
- “World of Difference 100 Award,” for creating and building Micro Loan Programs in the United States and in 24 developing countries (2009)
- Nominated for an Ashoka Fellowship - for Social Entrepreneurs
- Rocky Mountain Microfinance Institute Scholarship - named in her honor

Patricia Foley Hinnen

Patricia with Jane Pauley and Dennis White of MetLife

To view Patricia Foley Hinnen discussing the work of Capital Sisters on YouTube, please click here. View Patricia's bio and resume here.