Capital Sisters International, Inc. (“Capital Sisters”), a 501(c)(3) non-profit corporation located in Golden, Colorado, and organized under the laws of Colorado, is offering up to $5,000,000 of its Sister Bonds® Investment Notes (each a “Note” or an “Investment Note” and, collectively, the “Notes” or the “Investment Notes”).

Capital Sisters is a nonprofit organization committed to a world where impoverished women have access to credit for income generating activities that allow them to provide for their families and live with dignity. To this end, Capital Sisters will use the proceeds from the sale of its $1,000 zero-interest Investment Notes to make loans to international microfinance institutions (“MFIs”) which, in turn, lend to impoverished women in developing countries who do not have access to credit. The proceeds from each $1,000 Investment Note are used to fund ten women’s businesses at $100 each for each year of the Investment Note.

As of the date of this prospectus, Capital Sisters has $696,000 of Investment Notes outstanding. Using an additional $50,000 donated for the specific purpose of making loans to MFIs and $4,000 of its own funds, Capital Sisters has four loans totaling $750,000 outstanding to three MFIs as of the date of this prospectus. One MFI operates in Guatemala, one in the Philippines and one in Afghanistan. Considering the various maturities of the Investment Notes, which extend to 2025, Capital Sisters has raised $4,353,000 for 43,530 micro loans.

Capital Sisters offers the Investment Notes directly - no broker-dealer, underwriter, or trustee is being used. Capital Sisters is responsible for repayment of the Notes. The offering of the Investment Notes is a public offering in the states where we are authorized to offer the Notes. Please refer to our website at www.capitalsisters.org for a list of eligible states. This offering is not restricted to any limited class of investors.

Capital Friends International, Inc. (“Capital Friends”), a supporting organization for Capital Sisters under Section 509(a)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) has agreed to provide credit enhancement for the Investment Notes in the form of a capital reserve account (the “Capital Reserve Account”). It will use the funds in this account to reimburse Capital Sisters for losses, up to a certain amount, if any MFI does not repay its loan to Capital Sisters.

Payment from each investor, also referred to as a “Noteholder” in this prospectus, will be due upon Capital Sisters’ acceptance of the Investment Application from the investor.

INVESTORS SHOULD READ THIS PROSPECTUS IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE DISCLOSURES IN THE NOTES’ INVESTMENT APPLICATION FORM FOUND IN APPENDIX I CAREFULLY BEFORE INVESTING. THIS FORM MAY ALSO BE OBTAINED FREE OF CHARGE BY CONTACTING CAPITAL SISTERS USING THE CONTACT INFORMATION ON THE WEBSITE.

THIS PROSPECTUS DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN OFFER TO SELL OR THE SOLICITATION OF AN OFFER TO BUY FROM ANY PERSON IN ANY STATE OR ANY OTHER POLITICAL JURISDICTION IN WHICH SUCH OFFER OR SOLICITATION MAY NOT LAWFULLY BE MADE. FEDERAL AND STATE SECURITIES LAWS AFFECT CAPITAL SISTERS’ ABILITY TO CONTINUE TO SELL NOTES IN CERTAIN STATES.

The Investment Notes are being offered under an exemption from federal registration in accordance with Section 3(a)(4) of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Section 3(c)(10) of the Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the “Investment Company Act”). The Securities and Exchange Commission has not made an independent determination that these securities are exempt from registration.

This prospectus contains all of the representations by Capital Sisters concerning this offering. Investors are advised to read this prospectus and the investment application form carefully prior to making any decision to purchase the Notes. Investors are cautioned not to rely on any information not expressly set forth in this prospectus. No person has been authorized to give any information or to make any representation in connection with this offering other than those contained in this prospectus and, if given or made, such information or representations must not be relied upon as having been made by Capital Sisters.

Capital Sisters reserves the right to suspend the sale of the Notes for a period of time or to reject any specific purchase order, with or without a reason. Capital Sisters may also choose to accept a portion of a committed investment on the condition that the investor will make the remainder of the funds available at some point in the future.

This prospectus is intended to provide prospective investors with information necessary for an informed investment decision. However, nothing contained herein is intended as legal, accounting, tax or investment advice, and it should not be taken as such. A prospective investor should consult his or her own legal counsel and/or financial advisor with respect to his or her investment in the Notes. An investor must rely on his or her own examinations of Capital Sisters, the Notes, and the terms of this offering, including the merits and risks involved. An investor should be willing and have the financial capacity to purchase a high-risk investment that cannot easily be liquidated.

This prospectus contains summaries of certain agreements and other documents, but all such summaries are qualified in their entirety by reference to such agreements and other documents. Copies of other pertinent documents will be made available to qualified prospective investors upon request.

This prospectus contains forward-looking statements, and additional written forward-looking statements may be made by Capital Sisters from time to time. The words “believe,” “expect,” “intend,” “anticipate,” “estimate,” “project,” and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date the statement was made. Forward-looking statements are inherently subject to risks and uncertainties, some of which cannot be predicted or quantified. Future events and actual results could differ materially from those set forth in, contemplated by, or underlying the forward-looking statements. Statements in this prospectus, including those contained in the section entitled “Risk Factors,” describe some of the factors that could contribute to or cause such differences. Further, no independent examiner has evaluated the reasonableness of Capital Sisters’ forward-looking statements.

The repayment of Notes of any investor is dependent upon the financial condition of Capital Sisters, as the issuer, and Capital Friends, as its supporting organization. The nature of Capital Sisters' investments, Capital Sisters' lending activities, the risk of nonpayment by MFIs, and a number of other factors make the Notes high-risk investments. From a financial point of view, the Notes should not be a primary investment in relation to the overall size of an investor's portfolio. Investors should consult with their financial adviser when determining the amount of Notes that would be appropriate for them in relation to their overall investment portfolio and personal financial needs.

An investment in the Notes is subject to various material risks and investors may lose all or part of their investment. Prior to making any purchase, investors should carefully consider, among other matters, the risk factors disclosed in this prospectus beginning on page 4. However, there can be no guarantee that this list is comprehensive. Furthermore, other risks that are unknown to Capital Sisters or presently considered immaterial could potentially impair Capital Sisters' financial condition, operational performance, and prospects for growth at some point in the future.

Neither the Securities and Exchange Commission, any state securities commission nor any other regulatory body has approved, disapproved, or recommended the securities described in this offering, nor has any of the aforementioned determined whether this offering is accurate or complete. Any representation to the contrary is a criminal offense.

The Notes are subject to restrictions on transferability and resale, and may not be transferred or resold except as permitted under the Securities Act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act") and applicable state securities laws, or pursuant to registration or exemption therefrom. Investors should be aware that they may be required to bear the financial risks of this investment for an indefinite period of time.

The Notes are not insured or guaranteed by the Federal Deposit Insurance Company (FDIC), the Securities Investment Protection Corporation (SIPC), or any other federal, state, or local governmental agency.

OFFERING SUMMARY

This section summarizes the legal and financial terms of the Investment Notes. More detailed information about the Notes can be found in the section entitled “Description of the Investment Notes”. Before deciding to purchase any Notes, investors should read the more detailed information appearing elsewhere in this prospectus, including the Investment Application Form in Appendix I.

Overview and History

Capital Sisters International, Inc., the issuer of the Investment Notes, was formed in 2001 as a non-stock corporation in the State of Colorado. Capital Sisters is tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Code.

The mission of Capital Sisters is to raise investment funds for micro lending institutions that make business loans to impoverished women in developing countries.

Since its establishment Capital Sisters has been using an “Adopt a Village Bank” model created by its Founding CEO, Patricia Foley Hinnen, to raise grant funds for tens of thousands of micro loans in collaboration with non-profit microfinance organizations in the United States and around the world. Using this model, Ms. Hinnen and Capital Sisters have raised money for micro lending institutions in 25 countries.

Capital Sisters also educates socially conscious groups and individuals about the role that microfinance can play in lifting women out of poverty, and advocates for more enabling policy environments so that the microfinance industry can grow and thrive. Capital Sisters has created a global network of organizations and relationships whose missions are aligned with its own.

Capital Sisters launched its Investment Program in 2011, with the issuance of its first Investment Notes, in order to make loans to MFIs. Capital Sisters uses the proceeds from the sale of the Investment Notes to make interest free loans to MFI non-profit and social enterprise organizations that lend to impoverished women borrowers at commercial interest rates. The MFIs retain the interest earned from the women’s loans to help support their loan management programs and they return the principal to Capital Sisters. Investment Notes are repaid with the proceeds of the MFI loan repayments.

As of the date of this prospectus, Capital Sisters has $696,000 of Investment Notes outstanding. Using an additional $50,000 donated for the specific purpose of making loans to MFIs and $4,000 of its own funds, Capital Sisters has four loans totaling $750,000 outstanding to three MFIs as of the date of this prospectus. One MFI operates in Guatemala, one in the Philippines and one in Afghanistan. Considering the various maturities of the Investment Notes, which extend to 2025, Capital Sisters has raised $4,353,000 for 43,530 micro loans.

Capital Friends is a Supporting Organization of Capital Sisters, meaning that it has 501(c)(3) tax exempt status and its sole purpose is to support Capital Sisters, primarily through fundraising. Capital Friends is providing credit enhancement for the Investment Notes in the form of a Capital Reserve Account. The relationship between Capital Sisters and Capital Friends, and the Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement between the two entities, is discussed in the section entitled “Capital Friends International.”

The following table illustrates certain highlights of the combined audited financial statements of Capital Sisters and Capital Friends for the last five fiscal years.

* Capital Sisters began issuing Investment Notes in 2011 and the balance of Notes outstanding in December 2019, 2018, 2017, 2016 and 2015 was $696,000, $696,000, $463,000, $464,000 and $235,000, respectively.

 Capital Sisters had estimated fair values of donated services of $142,915, $179,294, $174,435, $166,026 and $165,168 for the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, 2017, 2016 and 2015, respectively. These amounts are reflected in both revenues and expenses of the respective years.

Terms of the Notes

The Investment Notes offered in this offering are equal in ranking to the Investment Notes that have been issued in prior years (unless in either case they are specifically designated to be subordinated by agreement between an investor and Capital Sisters) and together are the senior ranking obligations of Capital Sisters (other than Notes that are subordinated). The Investment Notes are not subordinate to any other indebtedness of Capital Sisters. They are issued in multiples of $1,000, for a term of 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 years. The Notes pay an interest rate of 0%. This enables Capital Sisters to deliver interest free loans to MFIs that in turn lend to women at commercial interest rates and retain the interest earned to help support their loan management programs.

Use of Proceeds

Subject to having satisfactory capital and liquidity ratios, Capital Sisters will use the proceeds from the sale of the Notes to make interest free loans to MFIs that have a significant percentage of their loan portfolio targeted toward impoverished women in developing countries. In order to qualify for a loan from Capital Sisters, MFIs must be non-religious, non-political, and non-governmental; must operate as a non-profit or social enterprise organization; and must use the loans from Capital Sisters to make business loans to impoverished women. They must also satisfy a detailed due diligence process.

Capital Sisters' loans to MFIs are interest-free. Loans will generally range from $50,000 to $300,000. For each $1,000 of proceeds the MFI must fund ten micro loans, for each year of the loan to the MFI. The term of the loans to MFIs are generally 1 to 2 years, such that the maturities of MFI loans in Capital Sisters' portfolio match or are shorter than the maturities of the Notes. Capital Sisters will not charge origination fees to its MFI borrowers, relying strictly on grants, donations and other revenues to cover Capital Sisters' operating costs.

Repayment of the loans made by Capital Sisters to MFIs will depend on the credit quality of the loan portfolio of those institutions, as well as a number of other factors. As of the date of this prospectus there have been no defaults or delinquencies in the portfolio of loans to MFIs.

Reports

The MFIs provide photos and data pertaining to their micro loan clients and Capital Sisters uses this information to provide client investment reports to its Noteholders on a periodic basis.

Distribution

The Investment Notes are marketed and sold directly by Capital Sisters. Interested parties must complete and sign the Capital Sisters Investment Notes Investment Application found in Appendix I to this prospectus and return it, together with payment, to Capital Sisters. The mailing address is printed on the application. Please read all materials carefully before investing or sending payment.

All inquiries relating to this investment opportunity or program activities can be directed to Capital Sisters at 1-720-778-1717.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Notes involves various material risks and investors may lose all or part of their investment. Prior to any investment, and in consultation with investors' financial and legal advisors, investors should carefully consider, among other matters, the following risk factors. There can be no assurance that the following list of the risks is comprehensive. Additional risks not presently known to Capital Sisters or that are currently deemed immaterial could also materially and adversely affect Capital Sisters' financial condition, results of operations, business and prospects.

RISKS RELATING TO THE USE OF PROCEEDS OF THE NOTESRisk of Loss of Investment

The nature of Capital Sisters' Investment Program, the activities of Capital Sisters' MFI borrowers, the illiquidity of the Notes involve a high degree of risk that may result in the loss of the total amount of Noteholders' investments. The Notes should only be purchased by investors whose financial resources are sufficient to allow them to assume the risks of investing in the Notes.

MFI Borrowers Are Engaged in Microlending Activities

Capital Sisters provides its loan funds to entities engaged in microlending, either directly or through intermediaries. These entities will use funds borrowed from Capital Sisters to make business loans to women in economically disadvantaged communities. The ability of Capital Sisters to repay principal on the Investment Notes will be dependent on the financial capability and performance of the microlending institutions and, in particular, on the performance of their loan portfolios. Adverse financial results or events involving any of these entities could have a significant impact on Capital Sisters' ability to repay the Notes.

MFI Borrowers Are Partially Reliant On Donations

Proceeds from the sale of the Notes are lent internationally to MFIs that operate as non-profit or social enterprise organizations. While these MFI borrowers are expected to use the proceeds from their loan portfolio to repay Capital Sisters, they do derive a portion of their operating income from grants and contributions from a variety of sources. This partial reliance on donations may affect the ability of MFI loan recipients to repay Capital Sisters, especially during challenging economic environments when the volume of such donations may decrease.

MFI Repayment Risk

Capital Sisters will make loans to MFIs whose loan programs may not have achieved operational or financial sustainability. There can be no assurance that MFI borrowers will repay Capital Sisters promptly or at all, whether because of poor performance of an MFI's microloan portfolio, because difficult economic conditions could adversely affect MFI's grant and donation income, or for other financial, operational or managerial reasons. If an MFI is delinquent in repaying, or if it defaults on the repayment of its loan from Capital Sisters, this will have a significant adverse impact on Capital Sisters' ability to repay the Notes.

Loans to MFIs Are Illiquid

In general, the loans to MFIs that are financed by the sale of the Notes are illiquid, meaning they are unlikely to be repaid prior to maturity and they may not otherwise deliver cash to Capital Sisters prior to maturity. This may negatively affect the ability of Capital Sisters to repay Noteholders in a timely manner, particularly if the Notes mature prior to the repayment of loans made to MFIs.

Political Risk

Capital Sisters may make loans to organizations located in regions that experience intermittent financial or political instability; this may reduce the possibility that MFI borrowers will repay Capital Sisters in full, or in a timely manner. Capital Sisters is exploring political risk insurance to cover certain risks in Afghanistan but there can be no assurance that this will be obtained, or that this or similar insurance will be acquired that might protect against currency inconvertibility, political violence, or expropriation. If Capital Sisters makes a loan to an MFI in a region that experiences significant financial or political turmoil, the likelihood that the MFI borrower would repay Capital Sisters in full or in a timely manner would decrease. In turn, the ability of Capital Sisters to repay Noteholders would decline.

Currency Risk

Capital Sisters will lend to MFIs in US dollars and these institutions will in turn disburse their microloans in local currency. There can be no assurance that the MFIs have sufficient or any currency hedging arrangements in place. Currency fluctuations could cause the value of the MFI's loan portfolio to decline relative to the US dollar meaning that the capital they receive on repayments from their loan portfolio is less than the value at initial disbursement, when converted to US dollars. Thus the amount of funds available to repay loans to Capital Sisters could significantly decline, impacting a MFI's ability to repay Capital Sisters in full or on a timely basis, and this could impair Capital Sisters' ability to repay its Noteholders.

General Economic Conditions

The risk of losses on Capital Sisters' loans to MFIs will vary with, among other things, general economic conditions, events that affect global, national and local credit markets, the types of loans or deposits being made and the creditworthiness of the MFI's own borrowers over the terms of the loans. Depending on these and other factors, Capital Sisters may be unable to collect some or all of principal when due on the loans made by Capital Sisters to MFIs. There can be no assurance that funds available to Capital Sisters will be sufficient to meet all potential losses if there is an MFI default. If this occurs, it may be difficult or impossible for Capital Sisters to repay the Notes.

RISKS RELATING TO CAPITAL SISTERS INTERNATIONAL

Change in Operations

Capital Sisters is not obligated to continue offering the Notes. Any change in its operations could have a negative impact on its ability to repay Noteholders. Capital Sisters has no plans to discontinue offering the Notes or its lending program but there can be no assurance that it will be able to continue its lending program.

No Key Person Insurance

The success of Capital Sisters' operations will depend on the efforts of its management personnel. If any of these executives leaves the organization and if Capital Sisters is unable to attract and retain other skilled staff, its business, operational performance, and ability to repay the Notes could be adversely affected. Further, Capital Sisters does not maintain key person insurance on any of its employees. There can be no assurance of continuity in Capital Sisters' key personnel or its impact on the ability of Capital Sisters to meet its obligations under the Notes.

Uncertainty of Donation Income

Capital Sisters and its Supporting Organization, Capital Friends, rely on contributions to finance their operations. For the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017, the Capital Sisters organizations received contributions in the amounts of $313,321, $215,412, and $291,025, respectively. Grants, contributions and other revenues are inherently uncertain income sources, since they are neither guaranteed nor necessarily renewable. Large grants often involve rigorous application and review processes, making them difficult to obtain, particularly in times of economic hardship. Since Capital Sisters and its Supporting Organization, Capital Friends, will be primarily dependent on grants and contributions for their operations, sufficient funds may not be available to continue operations in either or both entities if these sources of income become unavailable. If this occurs, the risk of nonpayment of the Notes would increase.

Investment Risk Outside of Lending Activities

Capital Sisters will invest cash into short term money market funds and other liquid investments. While such investments are normally readily convertible into cash, disruptions in the markets for these investments or in financial markets in general could result in Capital Sisters being unable to sell or otherwise liquidate these assets. Any adverse change in Capital Sisters' ability to liquidate its short-term investments could temporarily or permanently affect Capital Sisters' ability to repay the Notes.

RISKS RELATING TO THE TERMS OF THE NOTES

The Notes Are Illiquid

The Notes may not be transferred without the written consent of Capital Sisters. There is no public or secondary market for the Notes and no market is likely to develop. Accordingly, the Notes are highly illiquid.

Zero Interest Rate

The interest rate offered on the Notes is zero percent. The interest rate offered for the Notes is lower than the rates offered by other financial institutions for securities with a similar risk profile. A potential investor should not assume that the risk of nonpayment of principal associated with the Investment Notes is less than that risk for any other investment which does pay interest.

No Early Withdrawal

Noteholders do not have the ability to redeem all or part of the Notes prior to maturity. Although Capital Sisters may, in its sole discretion, permit early redemption, Capital Sisters does not currently intend to allow early redemptions.

Capital Sisters May Redeem Notes Early

At any time prior to the maturity of a Note, Capital Sisters may choose to redeem such Note, in whole or in part, upon ten business days' prior notice, at a redemption price equal to 100% of the principal amount. Under no circumstances will Capital Sisters be obligated to redeem all or part of any Note prior to the maturity of such Note. If a Note is redeemed, the Noteholder will not receive any penalty or premium payment from Capital Sisters, or any notional interest foregone for the remaining balance of the term after such prepayment.

No Government Guarantee

Neither the Notes nor the credit enhancement arrangements are covered by FDIC insurance, nor are they otherwise backed by any federal, state, or local government body. Thus, Noteholders may not call upon any government guarantee to recover losses on their Notes, should Capital Sisters, either alone or with Capital Friends, be unable to repay the principal of the Notes.

Default Under the Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement

Capital Sisters has entered into a Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement with its supporting organization, Capital Friends, under which Capital Friends has agreed to deposit funds into a Capital Reserve Account to provide credit enhancement for the repayment of the Notes in the event an MFI defaults on its repayment obligations to Capital Sisters. If Capital Friends were to become insolvent, or otherwise default on its obligations to Capital Sisters under the Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement, Capital Sisters may be unable to enforce Capital Friends' obligations under the Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement and may, as a result, have insufficient funds to cover a shortfall between amounts due and owing on the Notes and amounts received from MFI borrowers. In such case, Capital Sisters' ability to repay the Notes would be adversely affected.

No Sinking Fund

Because no sinking fund has been or will be established by Capital Sisters (except those established pursuant to various state securities regulations) to provide for repayment of the Notes, the Notes may be riskier than similar investments for which a sinking fund has been established.

No Trust Indenture or Trustee

In many cases, the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 requires that a debt offering be accompanied by the establishment of a trust indenture that provides covenants and procedures to protect creditors. Because Capital Sisters is exempt from this legislation, the Notes described in this prospectus are not governed by any indenture and therefore no trustee has been appointed. Furthermore, Capital Sisters is only making the limited covenants, representations and warranties to Noteholders contained in this prospectus.

LEGAL AND REGULATORY RISKS

Exemptions from Registration

The offering described in this prospectus is being made in reliance upon exemptions from registration provided by Section 3(a)(4) of the Securities Act, Section 3(c)(10) of the Investment Company Act, and the exemptions from registration of the securities of non-profit charitable organizations provided by the laws of certain states in which this offering is made. Reliance on these exemptions does not, however, constitute a representation or guarantee that such exemptions are indeed available. Capital Sisters may seek to qualify, register or otherwise obtain authorization for the offering in certain other states where it believes such qualification, registration or authorization is required. If for any reason the offering is deemed not to qualify for exemption from registration under the charitable securities exemptions referred to above (and if no other exemption from registration is available), and the offering is not registered with the applicable federal or state authorities, the sale of the Notes will be deemed to have been made in violation of the applicable laws requiring registration. As a remedy for such a violation Noteholders will have the right to rescind their purchase and to have their purchase price returned. If Noteholders request return of their investment, funds may not be available for that purpose. In that event, liquidation of Capital Sisters may be required. A significant number of requests for rescission could leave Capital Sisters without funds sufficient to respond to such requests or to successfully proceed with Capital Sisters' activities.

Change in Regulations Governing Exemptions from Registration

Pursuant to current federal and state exemptions relating to certain securities offered and sold by non-profit charitable organizations, the Notes will not be registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission and will only be registered with state securities regulatory bodies where this is required. Federal and state securities laws are subject to change and frequently do change. Future changes in federal or state laws, rules or regulations regarding the sale of securities by charitable or other non-profit organizations may make it costlier and more difficult for Capital Sisters to offer and sell the Notes. Such an occurrence could result in a decrease in the amount of Notes sold by Capital Sisters or an increase in the cost of registering Notes, which could adversely affect Capital Sisters' operations and ability to meet its obligations under the Notes.

Change in Tax Exempt Status

Federal and Colorado state authorities have determined that Capital Sisters is exempt from federal and state taxation on the basis that it serves a charitable purpose. This determination rests upon a number of conditions and assumptions that must continue to be met on an ongoing basis. If Capital Sisters fails to comply with any of these conditions or assumptions, Capital Sisters could lose its non-profit status and be subjected to federal and/or state taxation. In addition, Capital Sisters is not obligated to continue its current operations or existence as a non-profit entity. If Capital Sisters became subject to federal or state taxation, this could negatively impact Capital Sisters' financial viability and cash flow, which could impact Capital Sisters' ability to meet its obligations under the Notes.

Change in Regulation Governing Activities

Capital Sisters is not subject to regulation as a bank, but some of Capital Sisters' operations are subject to regulation by federal, state and local governmental authorities. Although Capital Sisters believes that its business is in compliance in all material respects with applicable local, state and federal laws, rules and regulations, there can be no assurance that more restrictive laws, rules and regulations will not be adopted in the future which could make compliance more difficult or expensive, restrict Capital Sisters' ability to originate loans, limit or restrict the amount of interest and other charges Capital Sisters may choose to implement in the future (although it currently has no plans to do so) under the loans it makes to MFIs, or otherwise adversely affect Capital Sisters' operations or prospects.

No Certainty of Tax Treatment

The principal amount of a Note is not tax-deductible. The purchase of Notes should in no way be understood as a charitable donation. Potential investors are encouraged to consult a tax professional regarding the tax treatment associated with the purchase of a Note or a loss they may suffer from purchasing a Note (see "Description of the Investment Notes—Interest Payments and Tax Reporting").

No Minimum Offering

The sale of the Notes is a best efforts offering and there is no minimum sales requirement.

Notes are Not Secured

The Notes and the Credit Enhancement Arrangements are senior unsecured obligations of Capital Sisters or Capital Friends, as the case may be.

DESCRIPTION OF THE INVESTMENT NOTES

What is an Investment Note?

A Sister Bonds[®] Investment Note is the instrument through which Capital Sisters will deliver its mission, by creating a "bond" between those who need capital and those who are willing to provide it. Capital Sisters will issue Investment Notes to investors and it will use the proceeds to make loans to MFIs that provide micro business loans to highly impoverished women in developing countries. MFIs make ten business loans for every $1,000 they borrow from Capital Sisters, for each year that they borrow.

Interest

The Notes pay an interest rate of 0%. The interest free nature of the Investment Notes enables Capital Sisters to deliver interest free loans to nonprofit MFIs and microfinance social enterprises that in turn lend to women at commercial interest rates. The MFIs retain the interest earned on their micro loan portfolios to help support their loan management programs and provide training and other services for the borrowers.

Term

The Notes can be purchased with terms of 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 years. For each additional year that principal is invested, Capital Sisters can make an additional year of loans to an MFI. Thus for each additional year of investment, a Note will fund an additional ten micro loans of $100.

Seniority

The Notes, including those currently outstanding, are senior ranking obligations of Capital Sisters (unless they are specifically designated to be subordinated by agreement between an investor and Capital Sisters). The Notes are not, and in the future are not expected to become, subordinate to any other indebtedness of Capital Sisters. Capital Sisters may in the future issue further similar Notes or enter into loans or other indebtedness with non-profit, charitable organizations or other investors that would be used for a similar purpose and such Notes, loans or other indebtedness could rank equal in priority to the Notes.

Credit Enhancement

Capital Sisters will not disburse a loan to an MFI unless Capital Sisters can demonstrate, immediately following such disbursement, a Capital Ratio of 20% as described in the section "Credit Enhancement". Capital Sisters will not issue further Investment Notes unless it can demonstrate, immediately following such issuance, a Liquidity Ratio of 10.0% as described in the section "Credit Enhancement."

Who Can Invest

The Notes are being marketed to individual and institutional investors and are not reserved for any specific class of investor.

Minimum Account Balance and Increments

The minimum account balance for the Notes is $1,000 and Notes must be purchased in increments of $1,000. There is no maximum, other than the size of this offering.

How to Invest

Investors indicate an investment amount and select a term from currently available options by completing the Investment Application included in Appendix I to this prospectus and returning it, together with payment, to Capital Sisters as instructed on the application. Please see the "Investor Guide" for more details.

Capital Sisters reserves the right to suspend the sale of the Investment Notes for a period of time or to reject any specific purchase order, with or without a reason. Capital Sisters may also, in its sole discretion, elect to accept a portion, but not all, of the investment amount proposed under any specific Application.

Settlement Method

Purchases of Investment Notes are settled with Capital Sisters acting as registrar and paying agent.

Maturity Date

The maturity date of an Investment Note will correspond to the first day of the calendar month following the month that includes the date of investment. For example, if an Investment Note account is opened on June 19th with a two-year term, the Note will mature on the July 1st which immediately follows the two-year anniversary of the issuance date.

Note Administration

Administration of the Investment Notes is conducted by Capital Sisters.

Increasing an Investment

In order to increase an investment, an investor must purchase a new Investment Note by completing a new Investment Application.

Options at Maturity

At maturity, each investor will have a choice of either redeeming an outstanding Note or reinvesting the proceeds into a new Note, or a combination of the two in increments of $1,000. Capital Sisters will send a maturity notice to investors approximately 45 days prior to the maturity of their Notes, providing instructions for redemption and/or reinvestment. If an investor takes no action in response to the notice, subject to compliance with applicable law, the principal will be automatically reinvested for the same duration as the previous Note, or the most similar term currently available if the previous term is no longer available. Should an investor choose not to renew an investment, Capital Sisters will repay the principal of the Note in full by check. Reinvestment at maturity is offered pursuant to the securities laws and the status of Capital Sisters Note registration in the state in which the investor resides or, for institutional investors, the state in which the entity is incorporated.

Early Redemption

Early redemption, in full or in part, may be permitted at Capital Sisters' sole discretion. However, it is currently not the policy of Capital Sisters to allow any early redemption and it is therefore unlikely that this will occur.

Transfer on Death Accounts

Capital Sisters does not automatically offer either Transfer on Death (TOD) or Payable on Death (POD) alternatives for the Notes. Such alternatives would allow registered owners to pass accounts directly to beneficiaries upon death in some states. We encourage investors to consult with an estate planner regarding the ability to identify a beneficiary for the Notes.

Secondary Market

There is no secondary market for the Notes. Consequently, the Notes should be viewed as an investment to be held to maturity as investors may not be able to sell, for emergency purposes or otherwise, any Note.

Interest Payments and Tax Reporting

Because the Notes do not pay interest, a Form 1099 will not be provided to investors – as no income will have been earned on the investment. These investments are not tax deductible. Capital Sisters will provide acknowledgement to the Noteholder of any principal donated to Capital Sisters in accordance with IRS 501(c)(3) charitable contributions requirements. Consult your tax advisor regarding the effect on your taxes, if any, of accepting a below-market rate of return on your investment.

DESCRIPTION OF CAPITAL SISTERS

Description and History of the Organization

Capital Sisters was established in 2001 with the vision of a world where impoverished women have access to credit in order to start or grow their businesses and lift themselves and their families out of poverty. Linking socially responsible investors with women entrepreneurs was the long time vision of Capital Sisters' founder and CEO, Patricia Foley Hinnen. Patricia's interest in microfinance started in the early 1980s when she observed the horrors of predatory moneylenders first hand while working with market women during her Peace Corps service in two African countries. The market women were paying as much as 20% interest a day.

Capital Sisters operates with two primary organizational objectives,

1. To provide interest-free investment funds to MFIs that serve the poorest of the poor, especially women, with micro business loans; operate in selected developing countries; and have a vision of becoming institutionally sustainable.
2. To educate women and other socially conscious individuals, groups, organizations and governments about poverty in developing countries and, particularly, its disproportionate impact on women and girls; microenterprise activity as a means of lifting women and their families out of poverty; microfinance as a viable and sustainable business model for international economic development; and the importance of enabling policy environments for the growth and effectiveness of the microfinance industry.

During its first decade, Capital Sisters was focused on raising donations and grants to capitalize revolving loan funds for microfinance institutions, while promoting the microfinance industry with the general public and policy makers. The “Adopt a Village Bank” model developed by Patricia Foley Hinnen, Founding CEO of Capital Sisters, was used to raise millions of dollars for tens of thousands of micro loans in collaboration with partnering microfinance organizations in the United States and around the world. For example, in 2000 Ms. Hinnen co-founded a Microenterprise Program for the International Alliance for Women which she managed during its first decade, establishing 120 Village Bank Revolving Loan Funds in 24 developing countries. Capital Sisters has also been very active in building the fields of microfinance and “gender-lens” investing as strategies for reducing poverty, through its Education and Advocacy Program. Through all of these initiatives, Capital Sisters had the opportunity to gain expertise, develop alliances, test ideas and build a global network of resources from which to launch its Sister Bonds® Investment Program.

The goal of the Capital Sisters Investment Program is to expand the funding base for the microfinance industry by providing large numbers of household investors with an opportunity to make relatively small investments. Through the issuance of its Investment Notes, Capital Sisters hopes to raise significant funding on attractive terms for MFIs that are using credit products to improve conditions in the poorest communities of the world and that are also working towards financial sustainability.

Capital Sisters believes that it is bringing its Investment Notes to the market at a time when there is more awareness than ever of the disparity between rich and poor on a global basis, and the disproportionate burden of poverty on females. We believe that socially conscious individuals are actively seeking to make the world a better place through impact investing, and we are making an investment opportunity available to them. We also believe that the investment community is becoming more interested in creating opportunities for impact investing with a “gender lens” to drive positive change for women and girls.

As of the date of this prospectus, Capital Sisters has $696,000 of Investment Notes outstanding. Using an additional $50,000 donated for the specific purpose of making loans to MFIs and $4,000 of its own funds, Capital Sisters has four loans totaling $750,000 outstanding to three MFIs as of the date of this prospectus. One MFI operates in Guatemala, one in the Philippines and one in Afghanistan. Considering the various maturities of the Investment Notes, which extend to 2025, Capital Sisters has raised $4,353,000 for 43,530 micro loans.

Capital Sisters is managed by its Founding CEO Patricia Foley Hinnen. The organization’s Board of Directors provides strategic direction and a framework for governance which includes best practices for risk management, transparency, accountability and sustainability. The Board members have a broad range of backgrounds and experiences across various industries, including entrepreneurship, global development and fundraising. The Board has several operating committees, including an Advisory Committee of high level professionals from a range of industries which advise the Board and CEO on ad hoc matters as they arise and a Finance and Investment Committee made up of Board members, staff and external advisors which oversees the financing, investing and lending activities of the organization. Capital Sisters has a high quality team of staff, contractors, and volunteers in place and has retained a range of advisers to assist with organizational development activities.

Through its grant and other programmatic activities, Capital Sisters has also developed a network of MFIs across the world that are or will be candidates for its Investment Program.

Capital Sisters also benefits from advice and funding from its supporting organization, Capital Friends, which is governed by its own Board of Directors with a broad range of experience and expertise. The two organizations have raised significant funding over Capital Sisters’ lifetime to support MFIs, ongoing educational and advocacy activities, and start-up expenses for the Investment Program.

LENDING POLICIES

Governance

The Capital Sisters Finance and Investment Committee is responsible for the oversight of Capital Sisters' lending activities and approval of the organization's Lending Policies, which govern the areas of screening, due diligence and approval of potential MFI borrowers, as well as policies for portfolio monitoring and risk management. The Finance and Investment Committee is comprised of a combination of Board members, staff and external advisors.

Selection Overview

Capital Sisters aims to lend to first tier MFIs that are in a growth phase where they can no longer rely strictly on grants to fund the growth of their loan portfolio but yet they are unable to access the financial markets on affordable commercial terms. MFIs receiving loans from Capital Sisters must have a significant majority of their loan portfolio focused on loans to women and must serve the highly impoverished, making loans to this target market in the range of approximately $100 to $300. They must also be non-religious, non-political, non-governmental institutions which operate as non-profit organizations or social enterprises. In addition to the specific mission, operational and financial criteria described below, they must be capable of preparing the type of client investment reports which Capital Sisters delivers to its Noteholders.

Screening

Capital Sisters does not seek unsolicited requests for loan funding; rather, MFI loan candidates are identified through Capital Sisters' broad network of contacts. Capital Sisters' management conducts an initial screening process in order to determine whether an MFI loan candidate meets the specific minimum loan criteria as set out in our Lending Policies. These criteria consist of factors relating to mission alignment and operational and financial performance. Candidates will be required to supply an initial request letter indicating the amount of the proposed loan and the intended purpose of the loan; their most recent annual report; externally audited financial statements for the previous three years and unaudited year-to-date financial statements; recent external rating or evaluation reports; and any additional materials requested by Capital Sisters for the purpose of evaluating whether the MFI loan candidate meets the minimum investment criteria. Capital Sisters also reviews other publicly available information pertaining to an MFI loan candidate in order to inform the decision process. The Capital Sisters management team evaluates the information and then determines whether the MFI loan candidate should proceed to the full due diligence review.

Due Diligence

Capital Sisters employs an established and detailed due diligence process to evaluate the suitability of an MFI loan candidate for a proposed loan. Due diligence will be conducted in accordance with Capital Sisters' Loan Policies which require an evaluation of the MFI loan candidate in the following areas:

1. Outreach - the degree to which the MFI loan candidate's social mission is reflected in all levels of operation; the characteristics of its client base in terms of gender, level of poverty and location; its level of market penetration; its average loan size.
2. Client Service - the degree to which the MFI loan candidate endorses client protection principles and social responsibility indicators; the degree to which it meets the needs of its target market through financial products and other services such as training; the quality of its services; the reasonableness of the terms of its loans.
3. Operational Viability – the MFI loan candidate's governance structure and internal control procedures; management track record and capabilities; operational efficiency and level of self-sufficiency; adequacy of management information systems; business plan and strategy; gender balance amongst the MFI loan candidate's Board of Directors, management and staff.
4. Financial Viability – the MFI loan candidate's historical financial performance; its balance sheet and financial structure (including capital, liquidity and others); the quality of its micro loan portfolio; and its financial forecasts.
5. External Factors – country risk in terms of political, economic and legal environments; and competition from other service providers in the MFI loan candidate's geographical region.

Due diligence is conducted on the basis of materials supplied by the MFI loan candidate, a site visit and meetings with senior management of the MFI loan candidate, and other independent research or ratings materials at the discretion of Capital Sisters.

Approval

Following due diligence, the Capital Sisters management team submits a credit proposal and recommendation to the Loan Committee. The Loan Committee is a subset of the Finance and Investment Committee and makes lending decisions on a majority basis and in accordance with the parameters set out in the Lending Policies. The Loan Committee also takes into account the portfolio diversification requirements within the Lending Policies. These include thresholds which limit the extent to which Capital Sisters may lend within a single country or to a single MFI (although, by definition, the portfolio will not be diversified to the fullest extent after the initial loan disbursements). Note that neither initial loan disbursements nor loan renewal disbursements will take place unless Capital Sisters can demonstrate the achievement of the Capital Ratio and the Liquidity Ratio described in the section “Capitalization”.

Loan Terms

Capital Sisters makes loans in the range of $50,000 to $300,000 at an interest rate of 0%. All loans are denominated in US Dollars (or in foreign currency with hedging in place so that Capital Sisters is not directly exposed to foreign exchange risk). Loans to MFIs have terms from 1 to 2 years. Capital Sisters disburses loans such that the profile of maturities within its loan portfolio matches the profile of maturity dates of its Notes and any other sources of funds used to make such loans. The MFIs provide photos and data pertaining to their micro loan clients and Capital Sisters uses this information to provide client investment reports to its Noteholders on a periodic basis.

Monitoring

During the term of a loan, Capital Sisters monitors the financial condition of its MFI loan recipients on an ongoing basis. MFIs are required to supply quarterly financial reports and audited annual financial statements, as well as a quarterly report on activities, which illustrate whether there has been any material deterioration in the criteria on which they were evaluated (and if so, a description of any measures being used to address that deterioration). Capital Sisters management uses this information to compile a Quarterly Portfolio Performance Report pertaining to its portfolio of loans to MFIs, including a recommendation as to whether any provision should be made against the value of loans outstanding on the balance sheet. Each performance report is reviewed by, and the level of provision approved by, the Finance and Investment Committee of the Board.

Representative MFI Borrowers

The following MFIs are either current borrowers under the Investment Program or are illustrative of the types of organization which may qualify for loans (those noted with a “*” are currently borrowing funds from Capital Sisters). The inclusion of any particular organization below does not imply a commitment on the part of Capital Sisters to lend to that organization.

*Friendship Bridge

Established in 1990, Friendship Bridge is a nonprofit, nongovernmental organization that provides opportunities that empower impoverished Guatemalan women to create a better future for themselves, their children and their communities through microfinance, education and health services. Forty-one percent of Friendship Bridge clients earn between $2.08 and $3.67 a day. On average, all clients have had approximately 2.6 years of formal education and are unlikely to speak Spanish, the official language of Guatemala. Friendship Bridge’s Microcredit Plus program provides microloans coupled with a variety of services, including preventative healthcare and a non-formal, participatory educational program designed for pre-literate clients. Friendship Bridge clients form Trust Banks – groups of 7-25 women who co-guarantee each other’s loans, elect their own leadership team, and serve as a network of support for each other. Currently serving approximately 22,000 Guatemalan women, Friendship Bridge promotes women’s empowerment through access to education and capital; offers a means to self-employment and self-sufficiency; and inspires women to become leaders and agents of change. Friendship Bridge is a US nonprofit organization with its headquarters in Lakewood, CO.

*CARD

The Center for Agriculture and Rural Development (CARD) was originally founded as a social development organization in the Philippines in 1986 and launched its micro lending operations in 1989. While the lending model used by CARD was originally based on the group lending methods developed by the Grameen Bank in Bangladesh, CARD has adapted that methodology to the specific context of the Philippines by moving to a model that is focused on individual lending. With the end goals of attaining maximum outreach and sustainability, CARD NGO now serves over 1.9 million borrowers, 99% of whom are women. Since the late 1990s the organization has been gradually helping its branches transform from non-profits to regulated, self-sustaining banking institutions, to broaden their product range and better serve their clients. Their strategy of developing mutually reinforcing institutions (MRIs) is very well regarded in the microfinance and international development communities and has earned them recognition as an industry leader. CARD's nine MRIs currently offer micro loans, banking, health and life insurance products and services, education, and training programs to their clients.

*FINCA

FINCA Impact Finance's network of 20 community-based microfinance institutions and banks offers innovative, responsible and impactful financial services to low-income clients. With 30 years of experience and a mostly local staff of more than 10,000, FINCA delivers a double bottom line of social impact and financial sustainability. Today, the breadth and reach of its responsible financial services continues to grow and evolve to meet new needs and new opportunities. FINCA Impact Finance has gone beyond traditional microfinance by leveraging the power of new technology, including mobile phones and agent banking, to make banking more affordable and accessible. FINCA is moving from a high-touch, high-cost traditional microfinance delivery model to a hybrid model that maintains responsible customer relationships while enhancing service and reach. In the last two years, it has implemented credit scoring/analytics, digitization and mobile financial services to be more efficient and effective. It has also re-engineered and streamlined its credit and customer service processes to lower costs and to make it easier for clients to do business.

Pro Mujer

Pro Mujer is a leading women's organization in Latin America that provides 300,000 women with a holistic offering that includes financial, health, and education services. These are often delivered through communal banks, groups of approximately 10-20 women who meet regularly and guarantee one another's loans. Pro Mujer was founded in El Alto, Bolivia in 1990 by two visionary teachers, Lynne Patterson and Carmen Velasco. Today, Pro Mujer operates in Argentina, Bolivia, Guatemala, Mexico, Nicaragua and Peru, and is headquartered in New York City. Since its founding, Pro Mujer has provided over 8 million health interventions and disbursed more than $3.6 billion in small loans, with initial loans typically averaging $150. The organization is currently expanding into other areas, including digital literacy, entrepreneurship and workforce development. Its mandate is to become a large scale, sustainable platform that delivers relevant and transformative resources and tools to women in Latin America throughout their life cycle.

Small Enterprise Foundation

The Small Enterprise Foundation (SEF) is a nonprofit organization that works towards the elimination of poverty and unemployment in five provinces of South Africa by providing loans for self-employment, combined with savings mobilization and techniques that increase the poor's chances of successful self-employment. In the provinces where SEF operates, 56% of households live below the poverty line and 33% of households live below the food poverty line, meaning they are unlikely to be able to afford enough to eat. The organization follows a solidarity group lending methodology where clients form five-person groups whose members are required to guarantee each other's payments. SEF has gained international recognition for its poverty-targeting methodology and its success in reaching and positively impacting the very poorest of its low-income communities. SEF began operation in 1992 and by 2018 the program was serving over 195,000 clients, 99% of whom were women, with average loan disbursements of approximately US$280 and a portfolio of approximately US$41.6 million.

CAPITALIZATION

While loans to MFIs are funded through the sale of Investment Notes, Capital Sisters relies on charitable contributions from organizations and individuals, as well as other revenues, for operating purposes.

Grants, Contributions and Donated Services

During the fiscal years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, and 2017, combined grants and contributions totaled $313,321, $215,412, and $291,025, respectively, representing the majority of the organization's funding for program operations. Capital Sisters also receives significant income in the form of pro-bono services from its legal adviser and other consultants, and from its CEO, who works entirely on a pro bono basis.

Capitalization

The following table illustrates the capitalization of the organization on a combined basis (with Capital Friends) as of December 31, 2019.

Capitalization	Dec 31, 2019
Investment Notes Payable	$696,000
Total Net Assets	$268,539
Total Capitalization	$964,539

As of December 31, 2019 and as of the date of this prospectus, the organization had received $50,000 in donations for the specific purpose of making loans to MFIs. In combination with the proceeds of the $696,000 of Investment Notes Payable indicated above and $4,000 of its own funds, Capital Sisters had outstanding loans to MFIs totaling $750,000.

Thereafter	$10,000
Total Investment Notes Payable	$696,000

Investing Activities

Capital Sisters invests funds under the oversight of its Board's Finance and Investment Committee. Pursuant to the Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement, Capital Friends invests the cash portion of the Capital Reserve Account in FDIC insured bank accounts, or other accounts agreed by Capital Sisters. Capital Sisters invests its other cash balances (operating reserves, endowment) in a manner which it believes reflects the operating needs of the organization and also achieves the appropriate risk / return balance. As of December 31, 2019, on a combined basis Capital Sisters had $204,700 in cash and cash equivalents.

 Capital Sisters had estimated fair values of donated services of $142,915, $179,294, $174,435, $166,026, and $165,168 for the years ended December 31, 2019, 2018, 2017, 2016, and 2015, respectively. These amounts are reflected in both revenues and expenses of the respective years.

CREDIT ENHANCEMENT

In order to fully deliver its mission, to raise funds for MFIs from socially responsible investors, Capital Sisters is seeking financing from third parties through the issuance of the Investment Notes which are described in this prospectus and which will be used to fund loans to MFIs. The combination of subordinated debt and the use of a Capital Reserve Account, both described below, serve as credit enhancement for the Investment Notes by reducing the risk that Capital Sisters would be unable to fully repay the outstanding Notes following late or nonpayment by an MFI.

Subordinated Debt

Capital Sisters plans to issue subordinated debt to organizations and individuals in order to fund, along with the proceeds of the Investment Notes, loans to MFIs. Any such debt would be subordinated to the Noteholders. The proceeds from the repayment of loans to MFIs which were funded by subordinated debt would provide credit enhancement for the benefit of Noteholders, as these proceeds would increase the pool of funds available to Capital Sisters with which to repay its Noteholders. Capital Sisters occasionally agrees with individual Noteholders that their Notes are subordinated, in which case these notes are considered to be subordinated debt for this purpose. As of the date of this Prospectus Capital Sisters has secured agreement for $55,000 of Investment Notes to be subordinated.

Capital Reserve Account

Capital Friends maintains a Capital Reserve Account to make funds available to Capital Sisters in the event of any default by an MFI on its loan to Capital Sisters, pursuant to a Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement, as described in the section “Capital Friends International”. Pursuant to this Agreement, Capital Friends deposits all available funds, to the extent required, into the Capital Reserve Account in order to maintain a balance equal to 20% of loans outstanding from Capital Sisters to MFIs, or a lower balance if and to the extent that Capital Sisters can satisfy the Capital Ratio requirement, as described in the paragraph “Capital and Liquidity Ratios” below. Capital Friends may, from time to time, deposit Letters of Credit (“LCs”) into the Capital Reserve Account in order to supplement or replace the cash balance, if and to the extent that Capital Sisters can satisfy the Liquidity Ratio requirement, as described in the paragraph “Capital and Liquidity Ratios” below.

Capital and Liquidity Ratios

Capital Sisters will not disburse a loan to an MFI unless Capital Sisters can demonstrate, immediately following such disbursement, a Capital Ratio of at least 20% calculated as follows

$$\frac{\text{Capital Reserve Account (Cash and LCs) + Subordinated Debt}}{\text{Outstanding Loans to MFIs}}$$

The Capital Ratio is intended to reduce the risk of nonpayment to Noteholders, by requiring that Capital Sisters always maintains capital equal to at least 20% of outstanding loans to MFIs. The Capital Ratio as of December 31, 2019 and as of the date of this prospectus was 25.5%.

Subordinated Debt refers to debt which is subordinated to the Notes and which is used for the purpose of making loans to MFIs. In a default scenario, the proceeds from repayment of MFI loans funded by such Subordinated Debt would be available to repay Noteholders before repayment to subordinated lenders. Capital Sisters also occasionally receives donations which are restricted for the purpose of funding loans to MFIs. The proceeds from repayment of loans made with such donations would also be available to repay Noteholders and thus such donations would contribute to the Capital Ratio in the same manner as Subordinated Debt. Capital Sisters may also secure other forms of credit enhancement (such as guarantees from the United States Agency for International Development (“USAID”) or the Overseas Private Investment Corporation (“OPIC”)) to replace or complement its existing sources of funding and, on the basis that they would be subordinated to the Notes and that they would either contribute to the Capital Reserve Account or fund further loans to MFIs, they would also contribute towards the Capital Ratio in a similar manner.

Capital Sisters will not issue any Notes unless it can demonstrate, immediately following such issuance, a Liquidity Ratio of 10% calculated as follows

$$\frac{\text{Capital Reserve Account (Cash Component Only)}}{\text{Notes Outstanding}}$$

The Liquidity Ratio is intended to ensure not only that the organization retains cash equal to at least 10% of Notes outstanding, but also that cash comprises at least 50% of the Capital Reserve Account at all times. The Liquidity Ratio as of December 31, 2019 and as of the date of this prospectus was 12.4%.

CAPITAL SISTERS BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND KEY PERSONNEL

Capital Sisters is governed by its Board of Directors and a description of each member of the Board is provided below. A description of the key personnel of Capital Sisters is also provided below. Capital Sisters is located at 601 16th Street, Suite C #310, Golden, CO 80401. The phone number is 720-778-1717. Each of the directors and key personnel can be reached at this address.

Patricia Foley Hinnen, Chief Executive Officer and President

Patricia Foley Hinnen is the Founder and Chief Executive Officer of Capital Sisters International. She has worked in economic development and international affairs for the past three decades with the U.S. Congress, the U.S. State Department, and the microfinance industry. She started Capital Sisters nearly two decades ago to raise business capital for impoverished women in developing countries, and to promote financial inclusion around the world. Patricia was awarded the 2015 Global Purpose Prize for Financial Inclusion by AARP/Encore.org, sponsored by MetLife Foundation, in recognition of her longstanding work to promote economic empowerment for women. She was also selected to be an official delegate to the United Nations Conference on the Status of Women in 2018 and 2019; named one of 15 Inspiring Female CEOs that Impacted the World in 2015 by CauseArtist; listed in the Denver Business Journal's inaugural list of "Who's Who in Impact Investing; selected for inclusion in the Impact Investing Marketplace; awarded the 2016 Pathfinder Award for Outstanding Women Entrepreneurs by World Denver, in celebration of International Women's Day; and awarded the 2016 Outstanding Global Service Award from the Colorado Alliance of Professional Women.

Since 1998, Patricia has helped establish seven domestic and international microfinance organizations under the Capital Sisters umbrella, raised loan capital for 100,000 women's businesses in 25 countries, and served as a microfinance and gender advisor to the State Department where she represented the United States in the 21-nation Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation forum (APEC) for a decade as head of the Women Leaders Network. Patricia lived in Europe for many years, managing the evaluation of international programs for the U.S. Congress, including the East European and Soviet portfolio after the fall of the Berlin Wall. Within the U.S., Patricia was the Co-founder of Colorado Microcredit, the Micro Business Development Center, the Colorado Microfinance Alliance, and is an Advisor to the Rocky Mountain Microfinance Institute. She serves on the boards of the International Fund of the Colorado Women's Foundation, and the Alliance of Professional Women, and is a member of the International Women's Forum. Patricia is a guest lecturer for the international and business schools at Denver University, the University of Colorado, and Colorado State University. She developed her passion for international affairs during two tours in the U.S. Peace Corps, where she served in West and Southern Africa with her husband Britt. Traveling to more than 60 countries has provided her with incredible experiences – including five revolutions. She and her husband were high school sweethearts and live in the mountains outside Golden, Colorado where they raised their two sons.

Patricia has a BA in Political Science and Economics from the University of Colorado (1975) and Master of Public Policy and Program Evaluation from Denver University (1977).

Patricia is the spouse of Britt Hinnen, the Secretary of Capital Sisters.

Cindy Lindsay, Treasurer and Chair of the Loan Committee

Cindy Lindsay is a Principal of FLS Associates, providing strategic business services to early stage technology startups. Prior to joining FLS Associates she was a Founder of Sitera Inc., where she created products that enabled a new market of communication chip sets, and she has participated in multiple startups that have had a successful IPO or acquisition. She is a director of BoldeReach, a non-profit organization funding international programs for women and children, and an advisor to the University of Colorado's Student Chapter of Engineers Without Borders. Cindy is a Trustee Emerita from Rice University and has served on the board of directors of the Association of Rice Alumni, previously serving as Board President. She has served on the Rice Alliance for Entrepreneurship – Information Technology/Web 2.0 Advisory Board, on the Board of Directors of Rice University Press, and as the chair of the Connexions Oversight Board.

Cindy has a BA in Mathematics from Rice University (1973) and a BA in Psychology from the University of Illinois (1973).

Britt Hinnen, Secretary and Vice President of Technology

Britt Hinnen has 30 years of professional experience in the corporate, government and nonprofit sectors with an emphasis in Information Technology. He retired in 2016 from the U.S. Department of Energy where he managed $65 million in energy efficiency and renewable energy grants. Prior to this Britt was an IT Solution Architect for Perficient, Inc., leading project engagements for Fortune 500 clients. Britt worked to create enterprise solutions and web architecture for a range of businesses and corporations prior to Perficient, including McData where he was responsible for web content management. While he spent a majority of his career in IT and web development, he has also worked extensively in energy sector development, green building, and natural resource management and has won two global awards for his work in energy conservation. Britt served in the Peace Corps in Liberia and Lesotho and has worked and traveled extensively around the world. Britt has been directly involved with Capital Sisters on a pro bono basis since its inception in 1996, is an inaugural Board member, and serves as VP of Technology.

Britt has a BA in History and Political Science from Western State College (1975) and a Master of Forestry from Colorado State University (1978).

Larry Greenwood, Board Member at Large

Larry Greenwood assumed the position of President of the Japan Society of Northern California on March 16, 2016. Prior to joining the Society, Larry worked four years in Tokyo where he managed government relations throughout Asia for MetLife and five years in Manila, Philippines where he co-led the Asian Development Bank and was responsible for about $7 billion of development lending a year. As a career diplomat from 1976-2006, Larry enjoyed two assignments in the US Embassy in Tokyo, postings in the Philippines and Singapore, and a variety of other jobs, including a term as US Ambassador to the Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC) group. Larry is concurrently Senior Advisor to the Bower Group Asia, a DC-based consulting firm advising corporations on government policy and regulations, and a non-resident Senior Adviser to the Center for Strategic and International Studies, one of the most prominent think tanks on international issues in Washington DC.

Larry has a BA from Eckerd College in St. Petersburg, Florida (1974) and an MALD from the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy in Medford Massachusetts (1976). He speaks and reads Japanese.

Patricia Cooper, Board Emeritus

Patricia Cooper has over 30 years of private and public sector experience as a public policy analyst, strategic planner, entrepreneur, and civic leader. She is the Founder and Convener of The Women's Regional Network: Afghanistan, Pakistan and India, a collaborative network of women leaders from civil society organizations in South Asia to lead and take action to address the issues of extremism, corruption and militarization of aid and development as they impact women's security in the region. She is helping to replicate this model in Latin America and Africa. Since moving to the United States from Canada in 1990, Patricia has served in leadership and governance roles for a number of organizations in the fields of education, public policy and women's rights. She served as Executive Director of the Children's Museum of Denver, where she directed the financial turnaround of the Museum. She served as a Fellow at the Center for International Affairs at Harvard University from 2002-2003. She serves on the Leadership Council for the Harvard Divinity School where she initiated and funded a conference for 80 international journalists on "Reporting Global Conflict: Uncovering the Link Between Religion and Human Rights".

Prior to moving to the United States, Patricia served for eight years as a senior executive appointee for the Government of Canada to provide advice on the effects of federal legislation on women and children. The Mayor of Calgary appointed her, as one of eleven citizens, to develop "The Economic Strategic Plan for the City of Calgary into the Twenty-First Century" and she was appointed by the Calgary Police Commission to review policies and procedures of citizens' complaints against police conduct. Patricia was a founding member of the Women's Legal Education and Action Fund to achieve equality for women through education and litigation under a new Canadian Constitution and served on the Board of Directors of the YWCA of Canada, the United Way of Calgary, the Senate of the University of Calgary, and the Calgary Chamber of Commerce.

Patricia has a BA in History from the University of Alberta (1969), an MPA from the University of Colorado, School of Public Affairs (1994), and a Master of Global Studies from the Korbel School of International Studies at the University of Denver (2006). She is also a Fellow of the Weatherhead Center of International Affairs at Harvard University (2003).

Wyn Schulz, Director of Finance and Operations

Wyn Schulz leads the finance and operations of Capital Sisters International, ensuring efficiency, accountability, and strategic growth to maximize impact. Wyn joined Capital Sisters with an extensive strategic and analytic background in corporate finance and operations working primarily in the technology and banking sectors. She utilizes detailed analyses of historical trends, potential outcomes, and critical success factors to ensure peak organizational efficiency. Some of the highlights from a career that spans over two decades include working with and training managerial staff in China and France; leading a team of business analysts and managers as Associate Vice President at a Fortune 50 bank; and consulting with dozens of small businesses in the areas of international banking and business planning. In addition to an extensive career in finance, Wyn's volunteer efforts include coaching students in Math Olympiad and Odyssey of the Mind; serving as Treasurer for a local Museum Friends Board; hosting events for families at various youth and family shelters; and planning fundraisers for several community non-profits.

Wyn received undergraduate degrees in Finance and French from Tulane University (1996) and an MBA from the University of West Florida (2006). She spent a year studying at the Universite de la Sorbonne in Paris, France (1994-1995), and completed an MBA certificate in International Business at the Transatlantik-Institut in Ludwigshafen, Germany (2006).

Sondra Jo Greene, Financial Advisor

Sondra Greene joined Capital Sisters in 2009 and was initially responsible for all finance and operational matters, including the launch of the Sister Bonds® Investment Program. She now focuses on strategic projects and advises management on ad hoc matters. Sondra has had an extensive and varied career in international finance. She spent fifteen years as an investment banker, for Macquarie Bank and Barclays Capital, primarily in London, where she raised private funding for public infrastructure projects in Europe and around the world. She was also part of the team that launched Macquarie's infrastructure funds management business in Europe and she managed significant asset acquisitions on behalf of the funds. Before joining Capital Sisters, she was the Finance Manager for Engineers Without Borders – USA.

Sondra has a BA in Economics from Brandeis University in Boston (1987) and an MBA from The Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia (1991).

Annie Casey, Data Analyst

Annie Casey oversees analytics and reporting of investor and microfinance data. Annie specializes in analyzing and synthesizing data – both qualitative and quantitative – to drive change. Prior to her time with Capital Sisters, Annie generated data-driven stories for stakeholders at the Alzheimer's Association, which were used to improve outreach to Colorado's underserved aging populations. She has conducted research in Ghana to amplify the voices of local women who knew micro credit groups were an important component of the fight against child trafficking. She also received funding from Rotary International for a project, Turning the Page on Health, which aimed to empower Peruvian communities and improve health and literacy outcomes in children. Annie conducted her thesis research on the post-conflict landscape in Northern Ireland, which focused on the role of grassroots community organizations in reintegrating one of Europe's most divided cities.

Annie has a BA in Economics and Anthropology from Grinnell College (2016).

CAPITAL FRIENDS INTERNATIONAL

Capital Friends International, Inc. was founded in 2004 and is exempt from federal income tax under Section 501(c)(3) of the Code as a 509(a)(3) Type I non-profit Supporting Organization, meaning that it operates for the sole purpose of supporting another 501(c)(3) organization. Capital Friends is organized and operates exclusively as a Supporting Organization for the benefit of, to perform the activities of, and to advance and support the purposes and programs of Capital Sisters International, Inc.

Capital Friends is managed by its Board of Directors and by its CEO Patricia Foley Hinnen, who also serves as the CEO of Capital Sisters. The composition of the Board of Directors reflects the Organization's primary responsibilities - to be a fundraising arm for Capital Sisters and to fund and manage special projects which further the Capital Sisters mission and business model.

According to the Bylaws of Capital Friends, Capital Sisters (as its Sole Member) has certain fundamental rights over Capital Friends, including naming the Chairperson of and appointments to its Board of Directors, and approval of fundamental transactions such as its reorganization, merger, sale or dissolution. Capital Friends does not have a controlling role in the oversight or management of Capital Sisters. It serves wholly in an advisory capacity in support of Capital Sisters and its mission. One Director serves on both the Capital Friends and Capital Sisters Boards to ensure strong communication and linkages between the two organizations. Patricia Foley Hinnen, the CEO of Capital Sisters, currently serves on both Boards.

Through December 31, 2019, Capital Friends had given approximately $433,500 in grants to Capital Sisters for various purposes in support of its activities. The financial results of Capital Friends for the years ended December 2019 and 2018 are combined with the audited financial statements for Capital Sisters, included in this prospectus as Appendix II. The inter-organizational grant income and grant expense have been eliminated in the combined financial statements.

Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement

Pursuant to the terms of a Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement effective December 22, 2010, Capital Friends has established a specifically designated account, the Capital Reserve Account, to serve as credit enhancement in the event of a default under any of the loans made by Capital Sisters to MFIs. Pursuant to this Agreement, Capital Friends deposits all available funds into the Account to the extent necessary to maintain a balance equal to 20% of loans outstanding from Capital Sisters to MFIs (or a lower balance if and to the extent that Capital Sisters has subordinated debt to satisfy the Capital Ratio requirement, as described in the section "Credit Enhancement" above). Capital Friends may from time to time deposit letters of credit into the Capital Reserve Account in order to supplement or replace the cash balance (subject to Capital Sisters being able to satisfy the Liquidity Ratio as described in the section "Credit Enhancement" above). If and to the extent that there is a default under any of the loans made by Capital Sisters to MFIs, Capital Sisters will notify Capital Friends of the default and Capital Friends will immediately transfer money in the amount of the default from the Capital Reserve Account to Capital Sisters. Capital Sisters will use those funds to the extent necessary to repay Noteholders and/or subordinated lenders when amounts fall due. The Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement will continue in full force as long as any Notes remain outstanding and can only be terminated with the consent of both parties.

Neither Noteholders nor any other lenders to Capital Sisters shall be obligated to file any claim relating to the obligations of Capital Friends in the event that Capital Sisters becomes subject to a bankruptcy, reorganization or similar proceeding, and the failure of the Noteholders or other lenders to file a claim shall not affect Capital Friends' obligations pursuant to the Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement to provide funds in the case of any default under any MFI loan made by Capital Sisters.

While the Agreement enhances Capital Sisters' ability to meet its obligations under the Notes and subordinated debt, Noteholders and subordinated lenders will not directly benefit from any rights under the Agreement except as specifically discussed in this prospectus and subject to the actual terms of the Agreement.

CAPITAL FRIENDS INTERNATIONAL BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Stephanie Boyles, President

Stephanie Boyles has extensive experience shaping new products to meet customer desires in a wide variety of settings - large telecommunications organizations, top tier management consultancies, technology startups, and most recently she co-founded a Boulder-based startup which designs and brings high end leather accessories to market. Before working in the startup world, Stephanie served as a senior business development and engagement oversight leader for The Monitor Group, one of the world's leading advisory and consulting firms. Prior to that, with BellSouth Corporation, she harnessed and delivered a corporate commitment of $25M to internet-enable schools throughout BellSouth's territory, a strategy which ultimately made the education market the company's fastest growing business segment and proved that the firm could "do well by doing good". Stephanie has also served as the Vice President of Technology for The International Alliance for Women (TIAW).

Stephanie has a BA in Mathematics from the University of Georgia (1974), an MS in Mathematics from Michigan University (1976) and a Ph.D. in Mathematics from the University of Florida (1980).

Pam Brown, Secretary

Pam Brown is an entrepreneur with an extensive background in business development, management, and investment-class real estate. She has spent over 20 years working in airports, with a focus on business development, IT solutions, property management and landside services. Pam joined Paradies Lagardere, the leader in travel retail, in 2018 as Vice President, Business Development, working in airports across the U.S. Prior to that she worked for a major provider of airport parking and transportation services, developing wireless internet and related IT solutions for airports for a variety of clients. She also co-founded an airport-focused Wi-Fi management company, Airport Network Solutions. Pam also serves as a member of the Advisory Board for the USO Northwest at Portland International Airport.

Pam attended the University of Oregon (1978 - 1981) and holds real estate licenses in Oregon and California.

Teri Schwartz, Treasurer

Teri Schwartz was president of Teri Schwartz Associate for 35 years, a Denver based consulting firm focused on the areas of organizational change and leadership development. Teri is a visible force in the national and international business communities, having received recognition for the work she has done in the areas of culture transformation, leadership, team development, executive coaching and organizational change over the last 25 years, across a diverse community of client organizations and individuals including Merck, Pinnacol Assurance, Merrill Lynch, Guaranty Bank & Trust, General Electric, Bristol-Meyers Squibb, Genentech, Human Genome Sciences, and the US Department of Education. For the last four years she has focused her skills and experience on education, working with Denver Public Schools and other Colorado school districts. She coaches principals, runs school staff team building sessions, works with top leaders to achieve organizational culture change, and designs and runs a common ground process to bring school communities and staffs together to resolve conflicts and create alignment of vision and strategy. Teri is actively involved in community service, teaching leadership and engagement skills to young and underserved populations in the Denver community; she also provides leadership training to the international board of the Oaxaca Street Children's Project in Mexico. Teri is currently retired, working on selected consulting engagements, serving on the Board of Capital Friends, working with Food for Thought running a food bank for a charter school serving low income students, traveling, and enjoying life.

Teri received a BS (1965) and an MS (1968) in Public Administration from the University of Colorado.

Patricia Foley Hinnen, Board Member At Large and Chief Executive Officer

See description under "Capital Sisters Board of Directors" above.

FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The combined audited financial statements of Capital Sisters and Capital Friends for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 are included in this prospectus as Appendix II. Audited financial statements for Capital Sisters for future fiscal years will be mailed to investors within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year.

DISTRIBUTION OF NOTES

Capital Sisters, as the issuer of the Investment Notes, is serving as the distributor of these Notes and, in those states where the Notes are offered for sale, is either registered to sell the Notes or is exempt from registration. Certain Capital Sisters employees and affiliated persons are authorized to disseminate information about Capital Sisters and about the Notes.

USE OF PROCEEDS

Subject to the Capital Reserve Account requirements discussed under “Capitalization”, Capital Sisters uses 100% of the proceeds from the sale of the Investment Notes to make interest free loans to nonprofit and social enterprise MFIs that have a significant percentage of their loan portfolio targeted toward impoverished women in developing countries. Capital Sisters conducts a screening process to identify suitable potential MFI borrowers who must then satisfy a detailed due diligence review in order to qualify for a loan. Capital Sisters’ due diligence process is discussed in the section Description of the Organization above.

As of the date of this prospectus, Capital Sisters has $750,000 principal amount of loans outstanding, $200,000 to Friendship Bridge, an organization that offers microloans solely to women in Guatemala, $300,000 to the Center for Agriculture and Rural Development (CARD) in the Philippines, and $250,000 to FINCA Afghanistan, an affiliate of FINCA International which provides microfinance services in 35 countries around the world. There are no outstanding loans to MFIs that are delinquent.

The following table indicates the maturities of the loans to MFIs which are outstanding as of the date of this prospectus. To date $1,725,000 of loans disbursed under the Investment Program has reached maturity and been repaid.

MFI Loan Maturity Schedule	Dec 31, 2019
Year Ending December 31	Amount
2020	$350,000
2021	$400,000
Total MFI Loans	$750,000

RELATED PARTY TRANSACTIONS

Capital Sisters has entered into a Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement with its Supporting Organization, Capital Friends. The Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement is intended to provide credit enhancement for the repayment of the Notes in the event of an MFI default in the repayment of its loan to Capital Sisters. For a more complete description of the Capital Reserve Account Funding Agreement, see the section “Capital Friends International” above.

Officers, directors and employees of Capital Sisters and Capital Friends may own or acquire Investment Notes. Certain officers, directors and employees currently own Investment Notes in the aggregate amount of $90,000. All Investment Notes hold the same terms (including a zero rate of interest), and the officers, directors and employees have no rights or benefits that differ from other investors. The Organization considers it desirable for its officers, directors and employees to purchase the Notes, as a sign of confidence in its Investment Program.

These individuals may also serve on Capital Sisters' Finance and Investment Committee and its Loan Committee. Under certain circumstances members of the Investment and/or Loan Committees may make decisions regarding MFI Loans which may result in a conflict of interest. The policy of the Finance and Investment Committee and of the Loan Committee is that any decision with respect to MFI Loans will be made in a manner which is fair and equitable to all then current Noteholders.

Capital Sisters and Capital Friends have adopted a conflict of interest policy that says that any officer, director or staff member will disclose any personal interest in any matter pending before the respective organization, and shall refrain from participation in any decision on such matter. All related party transactions are entered into on terms that are no less favorable to the organization than those that can be obtained from unaffiliated third parties. All related party transactions must be approved by a majority of the disinterested members of the respective Board of Directors.

Britt Hinnen, Secretary of the Board and Vice President of Technology, is married to Patricia Foley Hinnen, Founding CEO and CEO of each of Capital Sisters and Capital Friends. Neither individual receives compensation from the organization or the Supporting Organization for their respective roles. Both individuals are donors and Investment Note holders but receive no preferential treatment over other investors.

For fiscal year 2019, the organization paid $126,453 in total compensation to three paid employees. The CEO Patricia Foley Hinnen is also an employee but works on a pro bono basis. Total remuneration is expected to increase by approximately 25% over the next 12 months.

LEGAL MATTERS

The law firm of Hogan Lovells LLP, San Francisco, CA has passed upon certain legal matters for Capital Sisters and Capital Friends in connection with this offering.

INDEPENDENT AUDITORS

The combined financial statements of Capital Sisters (which includes the financial results for its supporting organization, Capital Friends) for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018, and the related notes and supplementary information thereto, included in this prospectus as Appendix II, have been audited by Ryan, Gunsauls & O'Donnell, LLC.

INVESTOR GUIDE

How to Invest

Investment term is selected at the time of purchase from the available options of 1, 2, 3, 4 or 5 years. All Investment Notes are offered at an interest rate of 0%. Capital Sisters reserves the right to alter the offered rate and term structure for any new Notes from time to time, as it deems necessary. Such changes would not affect the terms of Notes already sold under the terms of this prospectus.

To invest, please complete the Application Form and submit it to Capital Sisters at the address indicated on the Application Form. Confirmation of your investment will be sent to you upon receipt of your completed materials and payment. Telephone inquiries about your investment or about the Investment Notes in general can be made by calling 720-778-1717. Inquiries can also be made on the Capital Sisters website.

All purchases must be made in US dollars and by checks drawn on US banks. Capital Sisters reserves the right to suspend the sale of the Investment Notes for a period of time or to reject any specific purchase order, with or without a reason. Capital Sisters may also, in its discretion, elect to accept a portion, but not all, of the amount proposed for investment in a specific purchase order. If your check does not clear, your purchase will be canceled and you will be charged a $10 fee plus costs incurred by Capital Sisters.

Redemption

The Investment Notes may be redeemed or reinvested, in whole or in $1,000 increments, at the time of maturity. Investors will be sent a maturity notice approximately 45 days prior to the Note's maturity date. The notice will provide instructions for either redemption or reinvestment. If an investor does not take any action, its maturing principal will be reinvested on the same terms as the previous Note, or, if such terms are no longer available, on terms most similar to those of the previous Note from currently available options. Early redemptions or partial early withdrawals of the Notes are not offered and are possible only at Capital Sisters' discretion (see section "Early Redemption" in Description of the Notes). Investors opting not to renew their Notes will be repaid in the form of a check.

All Investment and Account Change Information Must Be Received in Writing

All initial investments, renewals, redemptions, account changes and any other pertinent investment information must be made in writing. No investments or changes may be made over the telephone.

Taxpayer ID

If Capital Sisters lacks the correct Social Security or Taxpayer Identification Number (TIN) for a prospective investor and is unable to verify that the prospective investor is not subject to backup withholding by the IRS, the investor may be subject to a fine. Such investors may also be prohibited from purchasing another Investment Note. If the TIN information is not received within 60 days after an account is established, the account may be closed with a penalty on principal. Capital Sisters reserves the right to reject any new account or any purchase order for failure to supply a certified TIN.

Independent Auditors' Report

Board of Directors
Capital Sisters International, Inc. and Affiliate

We have audited the accompanying combined financial statements of Capital Sisters International, Inc. and Affiliate (Colorado nonprofit corporations), which comprise the combined statement of financial position as of December 31, 2019, and the related combined statements of activities, functional expenses and cash flows for the year then ended, and the related notes to the combined financial statements.

Management's Responsibility for the Combined Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these combined financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America; this includes the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of combined financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these combined financial statements based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Those standards require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the combined financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the combined financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the combined financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the combined financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. Accordingly, we express no such opinion. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the combined financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

CAPITAL SISTERS INTERNATIONAL, INC. AND AFFILIATE
Notes to Combined Financial Statements
December 31, 2019 and 2018

Note 1: Nature of Operations

Capital Sisters International, Inc. (Capital Sisters) is a Colorado nonprofit corporation established for the purpose of raising investment funds for micro loan programs that serve impoverished women in developing countries who want to start or grow a business. To achieve this purpose, Capital Sisters has created its Sister Bonds[®] Investment Program which provides concerned individuals with the opportunity to address poverty on a global scale through impact investing.

Capital Friends International, Inc. (the Affiliate), (formerly known as The Sylvia Kallio Supporting Organization, Inc.) is a Colorado nonprofit corporation which was established to serve exclusively as a supporting organization for the benefit of, to perform the activities of, and advance and support the purposes and programs of Capital Sisters International, Inc.

Principles of Combination

The accompanying combined financial statements include the accounts of Capital Sisters and the Affiliate, which are under common control and will be commonly referred to as “the Organization” for the combined financial statements. Significant intercompany transactions and balances have been eliminated in the combination. The Affiliate is organized exclusively for the benefit of Capital Sisters and holds and maintains a cash reserve account which serves as credit enhancement for the benefit of the investors in Capital Sisters. The Affiliate’s assets are managed by a board of directors that has authority to make distributions to or for the use of Capital Sisters.

Note 2: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

This summary of significant accounting policies of the Organization is presented to assist in understanding the Organization’s combined financial statements. The combined financial statements and notes are representations of the Organization’s management who is responsible for the integrity and objectivity of the combined financial statements. These accounting policies conform to accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America and have been consistently applied in the preparation of combined financial statements.

Basis of Accounting

The Organization’s combined financial statements are prepared on the accrual basis of accounting and, accordingly, reflect all significant receivables, payables, and other liabilities.

Basis of Presentation

The financial statement have been prepared in accordance with U.S. generally accepted accounting principles (U.S. GAAP), which required the Organization to report information regarding its financial position and activities according to the following net asset classifications:

Net assets without donor restrictions – Net assets that are not subject to donor-imposed restrictions and may be expended for any purpose in performing the primary objectives of the Organization. These net assets may be used at the discretion of the Organization's management and the board of directors.

Net assets with donor restrictions – Net assets subject to stipulations imposed by donors, and grantors. Some donor restrictions are temporary in nature; those restrictions will be met by actions of the Organization or by passage of time. Other donor restrictions are perpetual in nature, where by the donor has stipulated the funds be maintained in perpetuity.

Donor restricted contributions were reported as increases in net assets with donor restrictions. When a restriction expires, net assets are reclassified from net assets with donor restrictions to net assets without donor restrictions in the statements of activities.

Fair Value

The combined financial statements consist primarily of cash, cash equivalents, receivables and payables. The amounts reported in the combined financial statements approximate fair values because of their short maturities.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of combined financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that effect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the combined financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Accordingly, actual results could differ from those estimates.

Cash and Cash Equivalents

For the purposes of the combined statements of cash flows, the Organization considers all highly liquid short-term investments with original maturities of three months or less to be cash equivalents.

Pledges Receivable

Contributions are recognized when the donor makes a pledge to give to the Organization that is, in substance, unconditional. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, all pledges receivable were considered unconditional pledges. The Organization's management considers pledges receivable to be fully collectible; accordingly, no allowance for doubtful accounts is presented. If amounts become uncollectible, they are charged to operations when the determination is made. An allowance may be established if an event occurs in the future that would necessitate a reserve.

Notes to Combined Financial Statements

Note 2: Summary of Significant Accounting Policies, continued

Investments

Investments are carried at fair value determined by quoted prices on the last business day of the fiscal year. Donated investments are recorded at fair value at the date of receipt. Investment income may be either unrestricted or temporarily restricted when earned, according to donor-imposed restrictions.

Contributions and Revenue

Contributions received are recorded as net assets without donor restrictions or net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the existence and/or nature of any donor-imposed restrictions. Contributions that are restricted by the donor are reported as an increase in net assets without donor restrictions if the restriction expires in the reporting period in which the contribution is recognized. All other donor restricted contributions are reported as an increase in net assets with donor restrictions, depending on the nature of restriction. When a restriction expires (that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose restriction is accomplished), net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

The primary sources of revenue for the Organization are donations, grants, and in-kind contributions. Revenue is recognized when it is earned. Contributions are recognized at the date of the donation as without donor restriction or with donor restriction depending on the nature and/or existence of any donor restrictions.

Donated Securities and Services

Donated securities and services are recognized as contributions in accordance with Accounting for Contributions Received and Contributions Made, if services (a) create or enhance nonfinancial assets or (b) require specialized skills, are performed by people with those skills, and would otherwise be purchased by the Organization.

Income Taxes

The Organization is exempt from income taxes under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and classified as other than a private foundation. The Organization is, however, subject to income tax on any unrelated business income. There was no unrelated taxable income for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018.

The Organization has adopted the provisions of Income Taxes. In determining the recognition of uncertain tax positions, the Organization applies a more-likely-than-not recognition threshold and determines the measurement of uncertain tax positions considering the amounts and probabilities of the outcomes that could be realized upon ultimate settlement with taxing authorities. The Organization analyzed its tax positions taken on their Federal tax returns for the open tax years 2016 through 2018. Based on their analysis, the Organization determined that there were no uncertain tax positions and that the Organization should prevail upon examination by taxing authorities.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of providing various programs and other activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the combined statement of activities. Indirect expenses are allocated to programs and supporting combined services on the basis of the function and areas benefited and use of the assets. All other costs can be specifically identified with a particular function and are charged directly to that function.

The expenses that are allocated include the following:

Expense	Method of Allocation
In-kind	Time, effort and valuation
Salaries, benefits and related	Time and effort
Technology and support	Fixed percentage based on purpose
All other expenses	Actual monies expensed per receipts

New Accounting Pronouncement

In June 2018, FASB issued ASU 2018-08 Not-for-Profit Entities (Topic 958) – Clarifying the Scope and the Accounting Guidance for Contributions Received and Contributions Made. The update clarifies the existing guidance and resolves the diversity in characterizing grants and similar contracts with resource providers as either exchange transactions or contributions. The Organization has evaluated all transactions on a modified prospective basis to all contributions entered into, or not completed, as of December 15, 2018. No changes have been made to prior periods or net assets as a result of adopting this guidance.

Comparative Financial Information

The combined financial statements include certain prior year summarized comparative information in total but not by class. Such information does not include sufficient detail to constitute a presentation in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles. Accordingly, such information should be read in conjunction with the Organization's combined financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2018, from which the summarized information was derived.

Note 3: Availability and Liquidity

The following represents the Organization's financial assets at December 31:

	2019	2018
Financial assets at year-end:
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 204,700	$ 145,499
Accounts receivable	27,167	24,655
Notes receivable	750,000	750,000
 Total financial assets	 981,867	 920,154
 Less amounts not available for operating expenses:
Cash – capital reserve	75,500	75,500
Notes receivable	750,000	750,000
Total amounts unavailable	825,500	825,500
 Financial assets available to meet general expenditures over the next twelve months	 $ 156,367	 $ 94,654

The Organization's goal is generally to maintain financial assets to meet 90 days of operating expenses. As part of its liquidity plan, excess cash is invested in short-term investments, primarily checking and money market accounts.

The Organization issues bonds to fund notes receivable (which represent loans to microfinance institutions). The Organization's policy is that maturities associated with bonds payable will extend beyond the maturity of notes receivable.

Note 4: Notes Receivable

The Organization uses the proceeds from the sale of bonds payable (see Note 5) to make zero-interest loans to microfinance institutions in developing countries that provide micro business loans to impoverished women. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Organization had four and seven notes receivable outstanding to three microfinance institutions, totaling $750,000 each year. The maturity dates for the notes receivable at December 31, 2019 range from October 2020 to September 2021.

Future maturities on notes receivable at December 31, 2019 are as follows:

2020	$ 350,000
2021	400,000
 Total notes receivable	 $ 750,000

CAPITAL SISTERS INTERNATIONAL, INC. AND AFFILIATE
Notes to Combined Financial Statements
December 31, 2019 and 2018

Note 5: Bonds Payable

The Organization issues Sister Bonds[®] zero-interest investment bonds in order to fund its loans to microfinance organizations (See Note 4). The minimum investment amount is $1,000. Each $1,000 bond funds ten micro loans of $100 each. The bonds bear zero interest and range in terms of one to five years. All principal is due upon bond maturity. The maturity dates range from January 2020 to May 2025. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, the Organization had two hundred and fifty-three and two hundred and fifty investments in bonds payable outstanding totaling $696,000, respectively.

Certain investors agree to subordinate their bonds in order to contribute to the Organization's capital ratios. As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, bonds outstanding totaling $55,000 were subordinated by agreements with two investors.

Future maturities of bonds payable as of December 31, 2019 are as follows:

2020	$ 151,000
2021	290,000
2022	78,000
2023	102,000
2024	65,000
Thereafter	10,000
	$ 696,000

Note 6: Net Assets with Donor Restrictions

The Organization's net assets with donor restrictions represent donor restricted contributions. Net assets with donor restrictions consisted of the following at December 31, 2019:

Description	Balance at December 31, 2018	Revenues restricted by donor	Expenditures satisfying restriction	Balance at December 31, 2019

Note 7: Donated Services

A substantial number of volunteers have donated significant amounts of their time to the Organization and its mission. In addition, directors and officers have made a significant contribution of their time to develop the Organization and its programs. Specifically, the CEO and founder of the Organization donates her time annually, in the pursuit of growing the Organization.

The value of donated services included as contributions in the combined financial statements and the corresponding program expenses for the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 are as follows:

	2019	2018
CEO – Patricia Foley Hinnen	$ 100,000	$ 100,000

Bookkeeping services	714	1,455
Total donated services	$ 142,915	$ 179,294

Note 8: Related Party Transactions

Capital Sisters receives annual grants from its Affiliate, for various purposes to support Capital Sisters' mission. Capital Sisters makes grants to its Affiliate for the purpose of increasing the balance in the Capital Reserve Account held by the Affiliate. For the year ending December 31, 2018, Capital Sisters awarded grants to its Affiliate in the amount of $13,000. For the year ending December 31, 2019 no grants were awarded to its Affiliate.

The Organization's board members and staff also participate in the Sister Bonds[®] investment program to support the Organization and its mission. All bonds issued (other than subordinated bonds) hold the same terms and conditions including a zero rate of interest, and the directors and staff have no rights or benefits that differ from any other investor (other than investors who have agreed to subordinate their bonds). As of December 31, 2019 and 2018, bonds payable to related parties totaled $97,000 and $94,000, respectively.

Note 9: Concentrations

The Organization receives a significant portion of its revenue and support from contributions and in-kind services. For the years ended December 31, 2019 and 2018 the Organization received approximately 69% and 55% of its revenue from contributions, and 32% and 46% from in-kind services.

Note 10: Subsequent Events

The Organization has evaluated subsequent events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through the date the financial statements were available to be issued, which was the date of the independent auditors' report. The Organization determined that no events occurred that required disclosure.
